Dr. Dicken Bettinger, Ed.D., Licensed Clinical Psychologist, retired. International Seminar Leader of the 3 Principles, Co-author of Coming Home: Uncovering the Foundations of Psychological Well-being is OUR SPECIAL GUEST. Here is what he wrote on the cover of my new book, MY STATEMENT ON LIFE AND DREAMS.

"I have witnessed, first hand, the transformative power of Harry and his team's teaching of Sydney Banks' Three Divine Principles to transform lives of war refugees living in refugee camps in Africa. I have heard their amazing stories of how miraculous healings have taken place as they gained their own insights into the 3 Principles. These stories of people shifting from unimaginable traumas, displacement from their homes, and crippling addictions to living hopeful, loving, caring lives give hope to each of us and to the world. Read this book and learn how the 3 Principles can transform your life as well. Discover for yourself how all of us already have within us boundless spiritual, creative power, love, and wisdom to live lives of inner happiness and loving kindness."

We will ask others who attend to donate anything from $5 up (the amount is totally up to them. Africans do not have to donate), and all monies will support 3P in Africa. Funds via Zelle in the USA, E-transfer in Canada or Paypal internationally to Harold Derbitsky at der_123456@yahoo.com.
